Music Seminars

Durham, N.C. – The Durham Center for Senior Life (DCSL) is proud to present Mr. Guillermo Perich on The African Influence and Elements in the Music of the Caribbean. These seminars occur in the DCSL theatre on Fridays during April (4/8, 4/15, 4/29) from 11am to 12 noon.

Mr. Perich was born in Cuba and is a trained violist and violinist. He has an impressive résumé that includes the Havana Philharmonic, Baltimore Symphony, and St. Louis Symphony with performances accompanying some of the best musicians in the world.

This event is offered at no cost in the theater, located on the first floor of the Durham Center for Senior Life Senior Center. Pre-registration is appreciated but not required. DCSL is located at 406 Rigsbee Ave, phone (919) 688-8247 or visit us at www.dcsln.org.
